James Monroe to Thomas Jefferson

Philadelphia March 26. 1794

Dear Sir

Your favor of the 11th reached me yesterday. We were mortified to find that our letters had not reached you, but hope the obstacle at Richmond is removed before this as Mr. M. has written you I shall say nothing at present upon the subject of affrs. here. I shall only commence with the inclosure of yr. correspondence with Hammond wh. after perusal by yr family & any others whom you wish, shall thank you to send to my brother in Charlottesville. I sent Stuart at Staunton a copy, and we mean to transmit one with the one containing the correspondence with Mr. Genet to the Ex: for the legislature. I hope Peter has not failed to attend & pursue yr. advice respecting the fruit trees. We desire to be affectionately rememd. to yr. family. I am sincerely yr. friend & servt. Jas. Monroe
